How to Recite Poetry

Jointly organised by Hong Kong Women Teachers' Organization and Hong Kong Teachers' Centre

Helping young people to recite poetry aloud could be one of the best gifts a teacher can give to a child.

In this workshop, we will try to look at the ways that poetry could be recited using poems that were presented in previous Schools Speech Festivals at both primary and secondary levels.

Teachers will also be encouraged to try out some of the poems for themselves. If there is a particular poem that the participant would like the presenter to show how it could be read aloud, they are most welcome to bring along a copy of the poem to the workshop.
